

Curriculum vitae

1979 – 1985	University of Heidelberg (study of human medicine)
1985	medical degree
1985 – 1989	residency in ophthalmology municipal eye hospital Frankfurt head: W. Lieb, MD, PHD
1989 – 1990	scientific program in collaboration with the Hoechst Company: keratophakia with silicon implants
1990 – 1992	fellow-ship in oculoplastic surgery
1993 – 1995	fellow-ship in vitreo-retinal surgery
1995 – 2000	deputy in the eye hospital Frankfurt head: Claus Eckardt, MD, PHD
Current position	Head, Eye hospital St. Joseph-Stift Bremen Academic teaching hospital University of Goettingen, Germany
Memberships	American society retina specialists (ASRS) European Vitreoretinal society (EVRS) European society cataract and refractive surgery (ESCRS) German ophthalmological society (DOG) Association German ophthalmic surgeons; Board member (BDOC) American society cataract and refractive surgery (ASCRS) Member clinical competence Center (CCC) Association German ophthalmologists (BVA)

Scientific research
Special interest

Co-founder of VIBERA trial Numerous studies on therapy strategies in wet AMD studies on diabetic maculopathy research in toxicology of vital dyes research in development of new dyes for intraocular staining research in devices of glaucoma surgery invited guest speaker in multiple international meeting lecturer

honorary surgeon

Bremen, August 01, 2014

Andreas Mohr MD